

Aunt Aggie's Antiques

When Aggie's nephews and nieces visited one summer they found a barn full of antique farm objects. The children couldn't imagine what some of the items were once used for. Can you match the old farm items with the correct name and use?

Circle any in regular use today.

Grinding Wheel

Used to sharpen axes and knives

Hand Pump

Used to draw water into the house

Milk Can

Used to store milk

Wash Board

Used to wash clothes

Kerosene Lantern

Used for light

Butter Churn

Used to make butter

Double Tree

Used to hitch horses to a wagon

Milking Stool

Used to sit on when milking a cow

Scythe

Used to cut wheat, rye, hay and grass

Grapple Fork and Pulley

Used to lift hay into the hay mow

Curry Comb

Used to groom horses

Buck Saw

Used to cut firewood

Horse Collar

Used to fasten harnesses to horses

Husking Peg

Used to husk corn from stalk

