

Quiz : AgMag Fall 2018

1. Agriculture involves the growing and harvesting of food, fiber, trees, and:
  - a. Plastic
  - b. Metal
  - c. Turf and landscaping
2. The same crops grow well all over Minnesota.
  - a. False
  - b. True
3. In agriculture, production means:
  - a. Packaging products so they are ready for sale
  - b. Getting farm products from farm to consumer
  - c. Growing plants and raising animals
4. What is Minnesota's official state grain?
  - a. Wild rice
  - b. Corn
  - c. Wheat
5. Which growing region of Minnesota has rough terrain, lots of snow, and produces more forestry products than crops?
  - a. Southwest
  - b. Northeast
  - c. Central
6. The Dakota Native Americans settled in southern Minnesota. Which crops did they grow in that region of the state?
  - a. Wild rice and forests
  - b. Corn, beans, and squash
  - c. Wheat and sugarbeets
7. Which biomes are for growing crops?
  - a. Pinelands and Hardwoods
  - b. Hardwoods and Prairies
  - c. Tallgrass Aspen and Hardwoods
8. Many farmers settled in Minnesota to grow agricultural crops and livestock. Which region of Minnesota contains the nutrient-rich soils and long growing season the farmers needed?
  - a. Northeast
  - b. Northwest
  - c. Southeast
  - d. Southwest

9. Which physical feature(s) allow Minnesota to be well suited for agriculture?
- a. Soil texture and nutrient content
  - b. Elevation, slope, and surface material of the land
  - c. Weather
  - d. All of the above
10. Wild rice is Minnesota's official state grain. Who were the first Minnesotans to harvest wild rice?
- a. Ojibwe
  - b. European immigrants
  - c. Railroad workers
  - d. Agricultural scientists